

ROUND TABLE

HEALTH CARE OF MIGRANTS AND THE ROLE OF HEALTH MEDIATORS

29 May 2017

National Institute of Public Health at Zaloška cesta 29, Ljubljana, Slovenia

AGENDA

9:00 – 9:30 Registration

9:30 – 10:00 Welcoming addresses

Chief Physician Ivan Eržen, Director, National Institute of Public Health

Mojca Gobec, Director General, Ministry of Health, Directorate for Public Health

Iva Perhavec, Officer in Charge, International Organization for Migration Slovenia

10:00 – 11:30

Moderators: Evita Leskovšek and Roumyana Petrova-Benedict

Public health view from the perspective of vulnerability

Evita Leskovšek, MD, National Institute of Public Health

Re-health: Context and overview

Roumyana Petrova-Benedict and Elena Val, IOM Regional Office in Brussels

Migrant Integration Policy Index (MIPEX): Evaluating the level of integration of migrants in health care in Slovenia

Sara Pistotnik, Faculty of Arts

Humanitarian health care of asylum seekers in Slovenia 2016/2017

Dimitar Anakiev, MD, Clinic for migrants

Pro-bono clinic for migrants

Aleksander Doplihar, MD, Pro-bono clinic

Health mediation and experience from the field

Samar Zughool, Abdelhakim Asnabla, Reza Shadani, health mediators, National Institute of Public Health

11:30 – 12:30 LUNCH

12:30 – 14:30 Interactive section with participants

Presentation of other activities and programs for health care of migrants in Slovenia

Suggestions and initiatives

Co-funded by EC Directorate-General for Health & Food Safety (DG SANTE)